Wit-held | Belgian wit | 5% ABV & 12 IBU

We 'withheld' some of the alcohol and bitterness to create a sessionable Belgian-style wit beer. Wit-held is an unfiltered brew with Belgian pilsner and German white wheat, finished with hops from Slovenia and the Pacific Northwest. It has a hazy off-white color, light mouthfeel, with a delicate balance of sweetness and orange spice. The finish is crisp, mildly tart and refreshing with balanced hop bitterness.

La Maison | saison/farmhouse ale | 7% & 25 IBU

La Maison is our brewery standard that pays ample attention to aromatic hops but stays within the parameters of a French farmhouse style favorite. La Maison employs flavor and aroma hops from the Pacific Northwest. This saison has a generous dose of Hunter's honey, earthy undertones and fragrant notes of citrus, grapefruit and pine. The finish is dry with a mild hop bitterness.
